19th ANNUAL INDIANA HERITAGE QUILT SHOW ENTRY

ENTRY RULES

All entries must be made of fabric, have three layers and contain quilting.

Entries must be made entirely by one person, unless entered in “Ensemble” categories.

Quilts entirely made by someone other than the entrant will be accepted as display, but cannot compete.

1. All persons involved in making the entry must be listed on the entry form. If the design is not the entrant’s original design credit must be given to the source.
2. Entrants determine the categories in which items are entered. Quilts cannot be re-categorized during judging.
3. Definitions:
  - Bed Quilts: Intended for use on a bed. Maximum of 120” on any side.
  - Wall Quilts: Intended for display on a wall. Maximum of 120” on any side.
  - Appliquéd Quilts: Appliqué predominates over other techniques in amount or effect.
  - Pieced Quilts: Piecing predominates over other techniques in amount or effect.
  - Mixed Techniques: Mixed Techniques include two or more reasonably balanced construction techniques are used to develop design of the quilt top.
  - Special Techniques: Special Techniques may include but are not limited to cross-stitch, embroidery, thread painting, wholecloth, three-dimensional work, and painting.
  - Fabric Art Quilts: Fabric Art includes original work (not a copy or adaptation of a previous work) created as works of visual art, reflecting innovative construction and design techniques, themes, subject matter and/or materials.
  - Small Scale Quilts: Entries must be proportionately accurate renderings of larger quilts, and may include but are not limited to portraits, landscapes, wholecloth and miniatures. Quilts are limited to 30” on any side.
  - Ensemble Quilts: Ensemble categories include entries made by two or more individuals. This definition includes all techniques, as well as quilting performed by someone other than the maker.
  - First Entry: Entrants submitting a quilt to IHQS for the first time are eligible for this award.
  - Exemplary Use of Color: Best integration of color and design as determined by the Judges.
  - Innovation in Design: Original designs which reflect innovative construction and design techniques may be considered for this award. No commercial patterns or copies of other work are eligible.
  - Viewer’s Choice: Viewer’s Choice is determined by the show’s attendees’ votes.
  - Mayor’s Choice: The Mayor of Bloomington, Indiana, determines the winner of this award.
  - Commissioner’s Choice: The Commissioners of Monroe County, Indiana, determine the winner of this award.
  - Judge’s Recognition: Each judge selects one recognition winner.

4. If you supply an e-mail address, shipping information will be sent via e-mail.
5. If you prefer to receive shipping instructions by mail, you must include a Self-Addressed, Stamped, Business-Sized (#10) Envelope (SASE).
6. Entry Form and the non-refundable entry fee must be postmarked by February 1, 2010. Incomplete entries will not be accepted. Entries are accepted in order of postmark date. IHQS is not a juried show, but reserves the right to limit entries based on space constraints.
7. Categories are not determined by size, but rather by the intended use, construction techniques, and number of participants in the making of the entry.
8. Entry must not have been displayed in a previous Indiana Heritage Quilt Show.
9. Entry may be completed by hand, machine or both. Entries must be made of three (3) layers of fabric and hand or machine quilted. No tied quilts will be displayed or judged
